THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

Representative Eric Barlow is currently serving his fourth term in the Wyoming House of Representatives. Throughout his tenure, he has served on the Labor, Health and Social Services Committee, including two years as Chairman. Beginning this legislative session, he also serves as Majority Floor Leader. His consistent engagement in national healthcare policy meetings paired with his legislative work provide a unique understanding of regional health issues. In 2016, Representative Barlow participated in the Henry Tolls Fellowship offered by The Council of State Governments (CSG) and has been an active member with the organization. Retired from a 20-year career as a practicing veterinarian, Rep. Barlow currently operates a family cattle and sheep ranch in northeast Wyoming along with his wife Kelly. Together, they have two grown children.

CSG West participation includes: 2016 Tolls Fellow; 2017-18 Vice Chair, State & Federal Relations Committee; 2017-20 CSG West Executive Committee member
