JEN KING, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

"CASA volunteers step up to serve children and families in creative ways. They know all the intricacies of each child's life and needs, and they use their voices to speak up on behalf of children during a trying and chaotic time."

Staff at CASA of Forsyth County (Cumming, GA)

"I did all the hard work, but the CASA was there making sure my child's needs were being met and she encouraged and applauded my efforts because she believed in me and believed that this would work."
