

“

I am proud to work as the Asian Liaison for Montgomery County, because my work helps the Asian community get access to government agencies and resources. Due to language and cultural barriers, the majority of the Asian community rarely engage with government entities. Montgomery County takes pride in its diversity and racial equity based governance, so it is important that we increase engagement to the rapidly growing Asian community in the decision making process.

– Yi Shen

Asian Liaison

Office of Community Partnerships

Montgomery County, MD

