

Rev. Mansfield Kaseman of the Faith Community Advisory Council and Lisa Martin of the Silver Spring Town Center co-hosted "Faith in Action in the Time of COVID-19" on June 18th.

A panel of faith leaders including Dr. Rajwant Singh (Guru Gobind Foundation), Imam Shaykh El Hadji Sall (Haneefiya America), Rabbi Abbi Sharofsky (Jewish Community Relations Council), Dr. Rev. Haywood Robinson III (The People's Community Baptist), Ms. Lubna Ejaz (Muslim Community Center), Bishop Chris Mathews (Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints), Mr. Tufail Ahmed (Montgomery County Muslim Foundation) and Mr. Mayur Mody (American Diversity Group) presented their response and contributions to those experiencing the many challenges brought about by COVID-19 in the greater Montgomery County community and beyond.

Ms. Heather Bruskin, Executive Director of the Montgomery Food Council, joined the group. She presented the potential increased long-term food insecurity scenario, as well as an inspiring snapshot of the Montgomery County Food Security Task Force operations. The Task Force, together with its nonprofit partners and food assistance providers including the faith community, served 14,900+ in just the last week.

Montgomery County Muslim Foundation
14,700 lbs. refugee food distribution

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints,
Langston Hughes Community Center, Baltimore