

MEAAG's Meet the Author Series to Begin in April

MEAAG is planning a new series of author conversations from April through June, hosted by the Montgomery County Public Library. The series is called Meet the Author: Stories to Broaden Understanding.

Featured authors include Eman Quotah, a Saudi American author, whose debut novel is Bride of the Sea; Reuven/Ruby Namdar, an Israeli whose novel The Ruined House won the Sapir Prize, Israel's premier literary award; and Sabaa Tahir, a Pakistani American who has written a very popular young adult series, Ember in the Ashes. MEAAG will host all three authors for live, virtual conversations; Quotah and Tahir live in the greater Washington area; Namdar lives in New York. Dates and times to follow. Comments are welcome; write to <mailto:dtrent@civilstrategies.net> or <mailto:karenleggett50@gmail.com>.

