Helping ALL Older Adults Thrive

Founded in 1973 by the Jewish community for the broader community, JCA helps older adults maintain dignity, vitality, independence, and inter-generational connection as they age.

Learn about JCA's free or affordable services to help older adults and their families in your congregation including:

- Senior Helpline – the free trusted source for information and referrals for older adults
- Kensington Clubs for early stage dementia support
- Free Medicare information and assistance
- Interages connections between older adult volunteers and MCPS students
- 50+ employment training and job placement
