Get to Know Matthew Cameron

I am originally from Ann Arbor, Michigan, where I attended Pioneer High School (Class of 2001). I attended Kalamazoo College (Class of 2005), where I studied history and theatre arts. After a brief foray into retail management at a fine jeweler, I decided to attend law school. I attended Wayne State University Law School (Class of 2011) and was admitted to the Michigan Bar in 2011. After several years of the commercial litigation practice at a few Southeastern Michigan law firms, I took my first corporate counsel position with Robert Bosch LLC in 2017. In April of 2022, I joined Whirlpool Corporation. In the fall of 2022, I was also elected to the board of directors for the ACC as a director at large.

In my free time, I am a board member and frequent collaborator with The Penny Seats Theatre Company in Ann Arbor, Michigan. In addition, I enjoy spending time with my wife, Kelly, and our three children.
