MISSION STATEMENT OF NAZARETH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

To worship and glorify God and to make disciples for Christ.

Dear Friends,

November always brings thoughts of gratitude to me. Our church family has so much to be thankful for. We are blessed by God with God's goodness, faithfulness, and the many blessings poured into our lives each day. As the colors start to turn into the golds and reds of fall, we can once again give thanks for the beauty of creation. Thanksgiving has long been my favorite holiday as it seems to have escaped the intense commercialism of other holidays. Thanksgiving is a season, reminding us that gratitude is more than a holiday tradition; it is a way of living with hearts that recognize God's presence and grace in every circumstance.

Gratitude isn't just a polite habit for November; it is a spiritual anchor. Even when life feels heavy, uncertain, or busy, we have a God who holds the future and walks with us through every season. When we count our blessings, we shift our focus from what is lacking to the abundance of God's faithfulness in our midst.

As we journey through this month together, here are a few things to keep in mind and look forward to in the life of our church: Our nation and the freedoms we enjoy, given to us by the sacrifice of those who went before us; the strong heritage left to our care by those who, in faith, founded Nazareth Presbyterian Church; family, friends, and neighbors.

As we continue your "Year of Prayer" at Nazareth, November might be a good month to try making a gratitude list each morning. Try to write down five (5) different things each day to give thanks to God specifically for. I know that some days are harder than others, but we are so blessed with all that we have been given.

November is also a wonderful time to get involved in some ministries that you may not have participated in before. To name a few - The Carpenter's Table, the Spartanburg Soup Kitchen, The Angel Tree, Undie Sunday and the Grateful Gathering held at our church on November 8.

My prayer for you and your household this November is that you would feel the peace of Christ in your home, warmth around your table, and a renewed sense of hope in your heart. You are deeply loved, and I am so grateful to be your pastor on this journey of faith.

Blessings,

Julie

YEAR of PRAYER at Nazareth

NOVEMBER

Prayer for the Sacred work of Voting

“Our Gracious God,

Thank you for the gift of freedom, for all who sacrificed so that we might have a voice. Help us to never take our vote for granted but to honor it as our right, our privilege, and our responsibility.

Grant us wisdom to see what is true, just and good. Guard us from anger, fear and pride, and teach us to care for our neighbors, especially the vulnerable and the voiceless.

Help us to make this duty a priority, that nothing will keep us from the polls. May we vote with humility, conscience, and love for our country and one another.

Let Your will be done.

In Your holy name,

Amen

Bread and Brotherhood (NOMEO) for November 2026

October, November, and December are my favorite months of the year. When Lyn and I were dating, back in the late '70s, she took me to Larison's Turkey Farm in Chester, New Jersey, built in the early 1800s. The turkey dinners were so good, and it was fun to see their white turkeys running around the large yard as the leaves fell.

Bring some Thanksgiving Day memories and meet me on Tuesday, November 10th at 5:30 – 8:00 pm at:

City Range Steakhouse*, 774 Spartan Blvd., Spartanburg, SC

City Range Steakhouse Grill is a steakhouse where tradition meets hospitality. They serve quality, hand-cut Certified Angus Beef that delivers exceptional flavor and generous portions without inflated prices. For 28+ years, this locally owned lodge has offered a chef-driven menu that goes beyond steak, with a wide variety of expertly prepared food and drink in a warm urban lodge atmosphere, plus consistent quality, sincere service, casual comfort, and easy parking in front.

Bread and Brotherhood will gather here for conversation, reconnect, unwind, and enjoy warm hospitality. Hope to see you there.

Journey of Generosity (JOG)

As November arrives and we turn our hearts toward Thanksgiving, our minds naturally reflect on the many ways God has provided for us. Gratitude is not merely a polite response to a good day; it is a foundational posture of the Christian life. When we recognize that every breath, every comfort, and every mercy is a gift from above, thankfulness naturally overflows into generosity.

In 1 Thessalonians 5:18, we are reminded to “give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” True gratitude goes beyond counting our material blessings—it anchors us in the unchanging goodness of God, even in seasons that feel heavy or uncertain. When we look back over the year, we see His fingerprints in quiet answered prayers, in the warmth of our church family, and in grace that carries us through the storm.

Biblical gratitude is never passive. Because God has been endlessly generous to us—most profoundly through the gift of His Son, Jesus Christ—we are called to be a conduit of that same love to the world around us. This November, consider how your gratitude can take shape:

- In Our Church Family: Lift up a church disciple in prayer, send an encouraging note to someone who has poured into your life, or join a committee.
- In Our Community: Participate in our mission projects, support our local food banks, or practice daily random acts of kindness for your neighbors.
- In Our Stewardship: Recommit your time, talents, and resources to the work of Christ, trusting the One who supplies all our needs according to His riches in glory.

Gracious God, thank You for Your overwhelming faithfulness and mercy. As we enter this season of Thanksgiving, soften our hearts to see Your hand in our daily lives. Transform our gratitude into a lifestyle of joyful generosity, that we might bless others just as we have been blessed. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Please prayerfully consider filling out your commitment card to “Be the Light” for Christ.*

The mission of the JOG Team is to encourage Nazareth to live a life of generosity for Christ.

HISTORY

Champ Hood and Uncle Walt's Band

Carroll DesChamps "Champ" Hood, often thought of as one of Austin, Texas's favorite sons, was born and raised in Spartanburg, SC. Champ was a founding member of "Uncle Walt's Band", an acoustic trio that shifted locales from Spartanburg to Austin and by the late 1970's had become a popular and influential act in the Texas Capitol.

Described by Uncle Walt's bandmate, Walter Hyattas, as "an inspired, natural musician," Hood wrote one of the band's most requested songs, "High Hill", at the age of twenty. Then when the trio decided that a fiddle player would come in handy, he learned to play the fiddle as an adult. He also shifted from acoustic guitar to electric guitar during his stint as a member of Rock Quintet, "The Contenders."

After Uncle Walt's band dissolved in the early 1980's, Champ stayed in Austin and became what a Texas monthly magazine story called "one of the most talented sidemen recorded anywhere." He recorded with Lyle Lovett, Jerry Jeff Walker, Walter Hyatt and others and performed with artists including Guy Clark, Jimmie Dale Gilmore and Lyle Lovett, who called Hood "one of my heroes."

Uncle Walt's Band was formed while Champ Hood was still in high school. Champ, along with Walter Hyatt Hooleys and David Ball, often played at "Hooleys", which was located in the basement of the Old Franklin Hotel in Spartanburg.

Hood died from cancer in 2001 at the age of forty-nine and is memorialized along with his parents in the Nazareth Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Walter Hyatt died in a jet plane crash in the Florida Everglades and his body was never recovered.

David Ball went on to have an illustrious career in Country music with popular songs like, "Thinking Problem" and "Driving with Private Malone."

Thank you!

Dear Julie and Nazareth Church family,

Thanks so much for sharing the pulpit at Nazareth this summer! Sunday at Nazareth is always a special time during our visit to the states and having a time to share our ministry through the sermon made the partnership between us feel even stronger. It was a blessing for us, and we hope it was a blessing for Nazareth, as well.

Earlier this summer, Shalynn and I reflected on the congregations we grew up in – churches that gave us the kind of positive fundament of faith that carried us beyond childhood, into adulthood. Nazareth was that for Shalynn and now living in Germany, we are grateful for the hands and hearts that continue to faithfully do the work of ministry there, building and tending to God's Kingdom in Moore, USA.

Thank you again for all you do and for all you are!

In Christ,

Tyler, Shalynn, Finn, Arlo, and Lyra Crawford – our missionaries to Tübingen, Germany
