

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday, as many of Jesus' original followers did, we raised our palms in worship of Jesus as he entered our lives once more. Tonight, we remember the quiet meal, dipped from the goblet of grace, the feet washed in love, the promises that the evening offers and the command to love each other as God loves us.

On Easter Sunday, we gather with the saints from all times who have been gripped with doubt, despair and sadness, just as the disciples gathered that quiet Sunday morning after their Lord had been killed. Yet, we will come as the body of Christ on earth, dressed in our finery, wanting to hear the news one more time! Unlike that first Easter Sunday, the day is marked with music, lilies and shouts of Alleluia! As God's disciples today, we already know the news! The tomb is empty! He is risen!

Please join us as we celebrate Jesus' "I am" statement, "I am the resurrection and the life." (John 11) This is the cornerstone of our faith. Let us celebrate together!

Blessings,

Julie
