

Dear friends,

I have always wondered why John the Baptist is part of the Advent story. After all, he is a full-grown man in the suggested Scripture lesson, so quite honestly, I usually just skip it. This year, I decided to give it a try and with the help of the Holy Spirit, I can understand why he is part of the Advent Sunday of peace. Please read Matthew 3:1-12 to prepare your hearts for worship Blessings,

Julie

Things to Remember

The Fellowship Committee invites everyone at Nazareth to the annual Advent Brunch, this Sunday, December 7 in the Family Life Center directly after church. Julie will say the blessing at the end of the worship service so you can proceed immediately to the FLC, enter and hang your coats on the coat rack inside the gym and then get in line. This will expedite getting that yummy food while it is good and hot! Remember, EVERYONE is invited and this is a gift from the Fellowship Committee to the church.

Please continue to be in prayer about your response to the “Commitment to Generosity” for the 2026 year.

If you would like to be on the list to provide food for bereavement receptions and other events, please contact Cyndy Urquhart at 864-590-6799.

Please pick up a Homeless Helper Kit at the sanctuary door and give it to someone who needs it.

December 14 is the last day to turn in your Angel Tree gifts and gift cards.

SAVE THE DATE! December 14, we will go caroling to our shut-ins. Lunch first in the Fellowship Hall, followed by lifting our voices in praise. No auditions necessary!

IN OUR PRAYERS

- Deb Ritzo’s cousins, Karen and Lori
- Tom Brewer
- James Cantrell’s friend, Ed Carver
- Kathy Bayer’s friend, Kane Dougherty

Christian sympathy is extended to the family of Margaret Culclasure.

Her service is Friday at 2:00 in the sanctuary.

Christian sympathy is extended to Susan and Steve Collins in the passing of her mother, Sara Gaulden.

The mission of Nazareth Presbyterian Church: to worship and glorify God and to make disciples for Christ

