QUOTES

"This wonderful event is a multi-purpose celebration - a fundraiser for the church as well as community outreach - an event that the community has come to love for the past three decades"
- Father William Roberts

"We've put together an event that will appeal to everyone in our community - whether they enjoy music or cherry pie. And if the pies run out don't fret - there are many other cherry-related items for sale as well as an all day BBQ!, bake shop, books, clothing, silent auction, children's nook and lots of other treasures" - Ben Buholtz - Festival Chair
