

No Longer Carved in Hardened Stone

1 No long-er carved in hard-ened stone God's teach-ing shall be writ-ten,
2 "Be still and know that I am God," God's voice in - vites and calls us;
3 Where we have missed the mark, God waits and, pa-tient, leaves us nev-er;
4 May we a-bide with-in God's word, all fear and doubt re-leas-ing, but in our hearts God shall be known as we to truth are and we are freed, though rough and flawed, from lures that would en-with o-pen arms and lov-ing grace, God hopes in us for-and live Christ's life of ser-vant-hood, in trust and hope in-bid-den: Christ calls us not to guilt and shame, but life athrall us, for Christ the Word of God a-bides with-in our ev-er; to right re-la-tion Christ com-pels— with God, with creas-ing. Christ is the life, the truth, the way, and in this bun-dant in God's name, and all our sin for-giv-en.

hearts, our shield and guide, be-stow-ing peace and so-lace.
neigh-bor, and with self: our god-ly life to-geth-er.
truth we are set free, for life and love un-ceas-ing.
