All Saints Day

November 1, 2026
9:00 a.m.
ELW Setting Nine

Welcome

A playroom for young children is available on the lower level just off the Fellowship Hall. It includes a tv to livestream the worship service, changing table, and child-size restroom. The playroom is not staffed. Children are always welcome in worship.
Children's bulletins for readers and pre-readers are available from the Children's Worship Station at the back of the sanctuary, along with crayons and colored pencils. Please return coloring supplies after worship!

Gathering

On All Saints Day we remember all who have died and gone before us, especially within the last year. Our liturgy includes a modified funeral liturgy reminding us of the death and resurrection of Christ with whom we are joined in Holy Baptism.

Prelude

Stand and turn to face the baptismal font

Welcome

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy
and the God of all consolation, who comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death.
We were buried therefore with him
by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life.
For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Eternal God, maker of heaven and earth, who formed us from the dust of the earth, who by your breath gave us life, we glorify you.
We glorify you.
Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who suffered death for all humanity, who rose from the grave to open the way to eternal life, we praise you.
We praise you.
Holy Spirit, author and giver of life, the comforter of all who sorrow, our sure confidence and everlasting hope, we worship you.
We worship you.
To you, O blessed Trinity, be glory and honor, forever and ever.
Amen.

Processional Hymn "Look Who Gathers at Christ's Table" ACS 977/p. 11

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

Word

First Reading Revelation 7:9-17

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34

Cantor [1] I will bless the Lord | at all times;
the praise of God shall ever be | in my mouth.
[2] I will glory | in the Lord;
let the lowly hear | and rejoice.

All [3] Proclaim with me the greatness | of the LORD;
let us exalt God's | name together.

Cantor [4] I sought the Lord; who | answered me
and delivered me from | all my terrors.

All [5] Look upon the Lord | and be radiant,
and let not your faces | be ashamed.

Cantor [6] I called in my affliction, and | the Lord heard me and saved me from | all my troubles.

All [7] The angel of the Lord encamps around those who | fear the Lord and de- | livers them.
[8] Taste and see that the | Lord is good;
happy are they who take ref- | uge in God!
[9] Fear the LORD, you saints | of the Lord,
for those who fear the | Lord lack nothing.
[10] The lions are in want and | suffer hunger,
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing | that is good.

[22] O Lord, you redeem the life | of your servants,
and those who put their trust in you will | not be punished.

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Commemoration of the Faithful Departed Glory and honor and power are yours by right, O Lord our God.
For you created all things:
and by your will they came into being.
Glory and honor and power are yours by right, O Lamb who was slain,
For by your blood you have ransomed for God a dominion of priests from every race and language, from every people and nation.

Choir: We walk in light of countless faces bright as beams of rising sun, certain as the morning chases night in endless ages' run.
Turning eyes now to their shining memory, to their faithful past, saints be now the truth divining;
death be now but never last.

When sorrow's heavy hand has weighted loss against the greater gain, pinning down that grief sore fated laden on the bed of pain.
Turning eyes now to their shining memory, to their faithful past, saint be now the truth divining:
death be now but never last.

Choir: When joy returns with laughter singing thanks to God for life's sweet song
Let us follow after bringing thanks to God for those now gone.
Turning eyes now to their shining memory, to their faithful past, saints be now the truth divining: death be now but never last.

This is the will of the One who sent the Lamb into the world, to prepare us for us a place of eternal rest until God raises us on the last day.

Give rest, O Christ, to your servants gathered with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing nor crying, but life everlasting.

You, O Lord, are immortal, as the creator and maker of all is, seen and unseen. We are mortal, formed from the dust of the earth, and unto earth shall we return. For so you did ordain when you created us, saying,

"Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return."

We all go down to the dust and weeping o'er the grave we make our song: Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah.

Give rest, O Christ, to your servants gathered with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing nor crying, but life everlasting.

Hear us, O gracious God, as we remember in love those whom we have placed into your hands. Acknowledge, we pray, the sheep of your own fold, lambs of your own flock, sinners of your own redeeming. Enfold them into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light.

Give rest, O Christ, to your servants gathered with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing nor crying, but life everlasting.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son*, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Into your steadfast love, faithful God, we entrust all for whom we pray, in the name of Jesus, your beloved.
Amen.

Peace

The peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.

* The phrase "Who proceeds from the Father" is the original form of the Nicene Creed. "And the Son" was a later addition. The Joint International Commission on Theological Dialogue Between the Lutheran World Federation and the Orthodox Church issued the Lutheran-Orthodox Common Statement on the Filioque which the ELCA affirmed in August of 2025. It says, "Valuing this old and most venerable ecumenical Christian text, we suggest that the translation of the Greek original (without [and the Son]) be used in the hope that this will contribute to the healing of age-old divisions between our Offering "I'll Fly Away" A. Brumley/arr. F. Zimmer

I'll fly away, Oh glory, I'll fly away; in the morning;
When I die, Hallelujah by and by, I'll fly away!
Some glad morning when this life is o'er, I'll fly away;
To a home on God's celestial shore, I'll fly away.
I'll fly away, Oh glory, I'll fly away; in the morning;
When I die, Hallelujah by and by, I'll fly away!
When the shadows of this life have gone, I'll fly away;
Like a bird from prison bars has flown, I'll fly away.
I'll fly away, Oh glory, I'll fly away; in the morning;
When I die, Hallelujah by and by, I'll fly away!
Just a few more weary days and then I'll fly away;
To a land where joy shall never end, I'll fly away.
I'll fly away, Oh glory, I'll fly away; in the morning;
When I die, Hallelujah by and by, I'll fly away!

Offering Prayer
God of healing and hope,
you bless those who are hungry,
promising to fill them with good things.
Fulfill that promise through us and these your gifts.
Nourish us with the abundance of your feast and unite us into the blessed body of Jesus Christ our Savior, now and forever.
Amen.

Great Thanksgiving
Dialogue and Preface

"Holy, Holy, Holy" (Sanctus)

Thanksgiving at the Table

Response:

...With Peter and all the martyrs, we honor Christ's death, saying Amen. Amen!
With Mary Magdalene and all the apostles, we proclaim his resurrection, shouting Amen. Amen!
With John and all the theologians and mystics, we look for his returning, pleading Amen. Amen!

...we shout blessing blessing, glory glory, wisdom wisdom, thanksgiving thanksgiving, honor honor, power power, might might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen. Amen!

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Communion Invitation

Jesus invites us, and all are welcome to receive the bread and wine of the Eucharist. Individually pre-packaged kits are available in the narthex for those who wish to commune in the pew.

Ushers will invite the congregation to exit the pew and proceed forward down the center aisle. You will receive bread. Ask your server for a gluten free wafer.

The common cup is available on the lectern/right side.

Take a cup of non-alcoholic wine or an empty cup from the tray. A Eucharistic Minister will pour wine into individual cups.

When you are finished, place your empty cup in the basket and proceed to your seat down the side aisle.

Adult Education Forum

11/1 - Timely Thoughts on End of Life Planning
Join us Sunday, November 1 at 10:30am to learn more about options and plans for the future - Karen Peterson from Better Place Forests will share information about planning for the end of your, or a loved one's, life. We'll talk about health care directives, legal considerations, payment options, and final resting places. This informal presentation will have plenty of time for questions!

Our adult education hour will be held in the Fireside Room. The planning team, including Sarah Borgeson, Linda Hildebrant, Rebecca Sauer and Pastor Sarah, is excited to offer engaging conversation throughout the year. As always, if you have ideas for speakers, topics or are interested in presenting, please contact one of us in person or email Rebecca at rjwestermeyer@gmail.com.

LCR Book Club News

Our book for this month is Horse by Geraldine Brooks. We will discuss it on Wednesday, November 4 at 1:00 in the Fireside Room. Horse takes place in three different timelines, 1850's Kentucky, 1954 New York City, and 2019 Washington DC. It is fiction but based on a true story of a racehorse called Lexington. We learn of the horse's beginnings and racing career and in later times the people who become interested in the story of the horse, his trainers, and his owners. A painting and the horse's skeleton trigger the action.

Future books:
December - Theo of Golden by Allen Levi
January – Whistler by Ann Patchett
