

Fruit of the Spirit

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control."

Galatians 5:22-23

the verse well known to most adults and introduced these timeless words to the children so that they could examine each sentiment more closely. Each attribute, in the wording written so carefully by Paul the apostle, dawned the front of a white envelope and we played a game called "is their love inside?" An envelope with "boast" or "proud" did not have a heart inside the envelope when opened. But acts of love such as "always protects" or "perseveres" sure did! The children delighted in finding love inside the envelopes and we chatted about how actions and intentions without love feel quite empty.

One child said "even a bad guy can act with love. Love belongs to everybody, like God." We often craft our lessons with glue and sparkles but really the light that shines comes from the mouths of our students. Good times" Teacher Suzanne Egan

"Love is patient and kind. From 1 Corinthians 3: 4-8, we know this. This week Summer Sunday School took
