

Jesus' Ascension

"Jesus has gone away to heaven, and some day, just as he went, he will return!"

Acts 1:11<sup>b</sup>

"Last Sunday, Class Hope learned about the Ascension of Jesus both in story and activity. Children created a visual of Jesus ascending into heaven using paper cutouts of Jesus, a cloud and the sun, along with cotton balls, string and a cup. The children colored their paper cutouts then attached cotton balls to the cup and taped their paper cutouts to the string that was attached to the cup. As they pulled on one side of the string, Jesus would rise up disappearing under the cup. This valuable lesson about Jesus' ascension to heaven visualizes the message that Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again! What great truth, what wonderful hope to look forward to." Teacher Donalyn Hellar

Kids in class faith were asked how they saw the world, how they perceived what was around them. From their observations they made a poster that would translate their thoughts into a picture or words. All of them agreed that the world was "dark" and "needs hope". One of them wrote "there is hope in all the badness of the world." After discussion and explanation of their poster, the class opened their Bible and turned to Acts 1, an account of Jesus's ascension to heaven before the eyes of witnesses. Wasn't Jesus the Messiah people were waiting for to save them from the oppressive rulers? The class learnt that Jesus assured his disciples and followers of the Holy Spirit who will comfort them and give them power to testify of him, to bring the message of hope to the people. And as Jesus promised, he will return to take his own. When asked if they believed this promise, the class was divided. Then we had to go. So we ended the class praying the Lord's Prayer. Next Sunday, the third person of the Godhead and his

the class will learn about the Holy Spirit, role in God's plan of redemption.
