Join us for a free public discussion of a new book on environmental and economic sustainability. Best of The Daly News: Selected Essays from the Leading Blog in Steady State Economics marks the debut of the Steady State Press, a new imprint managed by Arlington's own Center for the Advancement of the Steady State Economy (CASSE). Six authors contributed to Best of The Daly News; two will be panelists at the discussion.

Where: Arlington Central Library
Barbara M. Donnellan Auditorium
1015 North Quincy Street, Arlington VA 22201

When: April 6, 2020
7:30–8:30 p.m.

Panelists: Brian Czech (editor and contributing author) is the founding president and executive director of CASSE. He is the author of several books and dozens of journal articles. As a long-time civil servant in the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Czech was designated an Eco-Champion by PEER (Public Employees for Environmental Responsibility). Brent Blackwelder (contributing author) is emeritus president, Friends of the Earth, and a founder of American Rivers. A leader in national environmental politics, he has testified before Congress on many occasions and steered numerous policy initiatives.

Moderator: Janine Finnell of Leaders in Energy will be moderating the discussion. Designated a Local Conservation Hero by the Virginia Conservation Network, among many awards, she is well known in the region as a dynamic moderator of events.
