

All are invited to
The Paulist Center's
Seven Last Words
Ecumenical Service
Good Friday, April 2, 2021
12:05 PM

Via Zoom (real time only virtual service)

<https://zoom.us/j/95432459637?pwd=OEphdHY3blpPRjhDQUZTaEtqQm03dz09>

- Luke 23: 33-34 David Waters
Minister for Education and Membership, King's Chapel, Boston
- Luke 23: 39-43 Christine Tardiff , MSW, LICSW, MAPM
Pastoral Minister of Dance and Music, Paulist Center
- John 19: 25-27 Dorie Lee Goehring
Candidate for Holy Orders, Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts
PhD Student, Comparative Theology, Boston College
- Mark 15: 33-34 Aric Flemming, Jr. MDiv
Former Harvard Administrative Fellow
Founding Organizer of UNDRGRND Church – A virtual faith community established in 2020
- John 19: 28-29 Christopher Derige Malano , CSP
Seminarian of the Paulist Fathers
Co-editor of God's God: Small Faith Communities on Campus and Beyond (Orbis, 2018)
- John 19: 30 Rev. Joanne Elise Engquist
Lead Pastor of Gethsemane Lutheran Church in Downtown Seattle, Washington
- Luke 23: 44-46 Dr. Jessica Coblentz
Assistant Professor of Religious Studies & Theology at Saint Mary's College (Notre Dame, IN), Roman Catholic

The Paulist Center is an intentional community of faith in the Catholic tradition.
Please note that this service is real time virtual only. It is not being recorded for later broadcast and there is no in-person service at the Paulist Center Chapel on this Good Friday.
We hope to see you in person in 2022!