TELLING OUR STORIES

HEALING WOUNDS OF RACISM, BUILDING BELOVED COMMUNITY

Performed and facilitated by Playback For Change

In 4 interactive sessions of theater and discussion, participants see themselves in one another's stories of race and racism as they are brought to life on stage

Creating Common Cause

Sat. Jan. 17, 2026 from 2 to 4:30 pm at St. Alban's, Newtown Square
3625 Chapel Rd, Newtown Square, PA 19073

The fourth and final performance will be for everyone to share their stories and experiences of resisting and healing from racism. This performance would also focus on how we all work together, in solidarity, to dismantle systemic racism and White supremacy.

Tickets cost $15 per person or $50 for a group of 5 or more. Financial assistance is available. Email diopaarc@gmail.com.

What is

Playback Theatre?

Audience members' real stories become the source material. The performance is spontaneous - it is theater created through a unique collaboration between performers and audience.

Someone from the audience tells a story or moment from their life, chooses actors to play the different roles, then watches as their story is immediately recreated on "stage."
