Join Us This Summer!

Goshen Friends School's Summer Camp for Preschoolers, Pre-Kindergartners, and rising Kindergartners provides an exciting, nurturing experience for young children ages 2½ to 5.

Choose from 2 options:

3 days per week, 9 a.m. - noon

3 days per week, 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

The summer program at Goshen Friends School is a fun, nurturing experience for first-time and younger campers. Age-appropriate activities acknowledge the developing skills of young children while encouraging independence.

Our 10-acre campus provides ample space to explore, play, and make friends. Summer campers enjoy collaborative art projects, large-motor activities, cooperative games, nature walks, splashing in pools, sensory activities, and outdoor learning.

The program is guided by the same Quaker values that have been the cornerstone of a Goshen Friends education since 1959.

Goshen Friends School is located at 814 N. Chester Road in West Chester, at the intersection of Route 352 and Paoli Pike.
