COLLABORATE PASadena LEADERSHIP COUNCIL STUDENT APPLICATION

Youth Leadership Development • Community Service •Community Engagement

Dear Applicant:

Based on a Collective Impact model, Collaborate PASadena is a supportive framework of the Pasadena Unified School District and the City of Pasadena made up of individuals, organizations, and businesses dedicated to improving the lives of children and families. Our vision is for the children of Pasadena, Altadena, and Sierra Madre to all grow up in a safe, stable, and supportive environment that prepares them for success in school and life.

The Collaborate PASadena Leadership Council was established in April of 2015 to serve as an advisory body for the initiative which is designed to bring the community together to create positive outcomes for children, youth and families. The Collaborate PASadena Leadership Council meets on the 4th Wednesday of each month from 6:00-7:30 pm at Pacific Oaks College in Pasadena.

Thank you for your interest in serving on the Collaborate PASadena Leadership Council!

Complete all sections of the application and submit it by the deadline. Please make sure that you and your parent/guardian signs the application as well.
