BHHS PBIS CORE VALUES

SHOW INTEGRITY

- Display incremental improvement in academics and your behavior.
- Exercise honesty in academic and artistic work submissions.
- Help other students when they are in need of help.
- Observe and adhere to deadlines for schedules, meetings, workshops, etc.
- Be an original creator by respecting others' work.

BE ENGAGED

- Exercise on-time participation for class meetings.
- Be dressed for success in school-appropriate clothing.
- Respond to emails and messages in a timely manner.
- Create a home workspace that is distraction-free.
- Ask permission prior to using the restroom or turning your camera off.
- Respond when asked to participate.

PRACTICE NETIQUETTE

- Be respectful. Use headphones.
- Use proactive and positive communication.
- Keep cameras on & follow teachers' expectations.
- Mute your microphone, as instructed by the teacher.
- Only use the appropriate Zoom background.
- Minimize visual and audio interruptions.

BE SUPPORTIVE

- Be helpful toward other students outside of virtual meetings.
- Make positive suggestions.
- Take initiative to support others.
- Encourage positive behaviors of classmates and advocate for each other.
- Collaborate to solve technical questions.
- Engage in regular checks for understanding.

BE KIND/STAND UP FOR OTHERS

- Strive for one act/display of kindness each day.
- Be an upstander rather than a bystander.
- Report on-line bullying or misbehavior.
- Encourage others.
- Show care and patience.
- Advocate for those in need.
