ABOUT OUR 2022 YMHC KEYNOTE SPEAKER STANLEY LEONE, JR

Stanley celebrates the power of an individual to choose a joyful, more productive life. Reminding people that they do matter and they do make a difference, Stanley's story will encourage, inspire, and transform the way they see themselves.

Earning his undergrad degree from St. Xavier University, graduating Magna Cum Laude, he went on to attain his M.Ed. and is currently in the dissertation process of a PhD in Psychology. Stanley authored No Place Like Hope, a Reader's Favorite 5 Star Review Winner, been selected as a contributing writer to Executive Speeches Publication and is a 2014 Phi Delta Kappa James Umstatt Outstanding Leader in Education Award Winner. He has been named Business Partner of the Year for numerous school districts and has presented to more than 1.5 million people over the course of his 26-year career.

In 2005 Stanley served as the national spokesperson for the United States Navy "Accelerate Your Life" Campaign and in 2007 he was featured on the pre-game show of the Super Bowl. He has keynoted some of the largest educational conferences in the country such as AASA, NASSP, and NAESP, as well as dozens of state-level administrative conferences in 38 states. Stanley is a Clinically Certified Trauma Professional, as well as an approved administrative recertification provider for the state of IL through the Illinois Principals Association (IPA) and currently delivers administrator academies statewide. Stating that he's "not an expert, he's a product," the audience is sure to leave this keynote with renewed passion for living their best lives now!
