Kim Bailey, M.Ed., ALC, Assistant FOCUS Director for South Alabama, is a retired educator of twenty-nine years who spent the last twenty years of her career as a professional school counselor. She earned a Bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama in Secondary Education Language Arts, a Master's Degree in Counseling from the University of Montevallo, and even in retirement is continuing her commitment to being a life-long learner as a student in the Counselor Educator EdS program at The University of Alabama while also working as mental health counselor in Birmingham. Throughout her career, she trained teacher leaders both locally, statewide, and nationally in Peer Helper curriculum, standards, and program implementation. Additionally, Mrs. Bailey is a Youth Mental Health First Aid instructor and is passionate about teaching adults how to support the young people with whom they work should a mental health crisis arise. Her desire to serve is motivated by the ultimate goal of helping students succeed personally and academically so that they will have unlimited opportunities in their post-secondary educational and professional endeavors.
