February 2021 Discipleship Catalog

Hello Friends,

As I am an avid reader, I am always eager for the next article or book suggestion to land in my inbox.

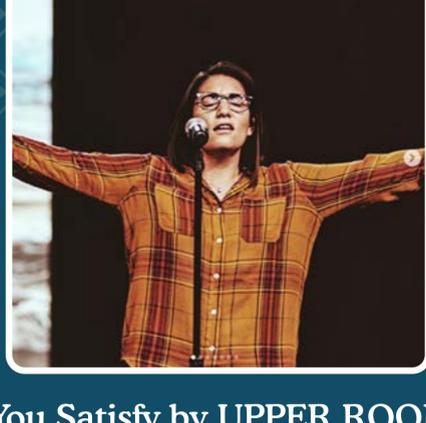

These past several months I have been struck by the correlation between relationship and discipleship. Therefore, my hope for us is that we wouldn't simply ingest these resources personally but instead invite a friend, group, spouse, anyone to come alongside as we seek to grow in our apprenticeship to Christ. The resources in this Discipleship Catalog are great conversation starters when we aren't sure where to begin. As Regis Philbin reminded me as a young child, "phone a friend, you might just win a million dollars."

In Christ,
Ash McDonald
Interim Director of Discipleship & Community

Christian Nationalism is Worse Than You Think

Quick to Listen Podcast with Christianity Today

Paul D. Miller, professor of the practice of international affairs at Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service, joined global media manager Morgan Lee and editorial director Ted Olsen to define Christian nationalism, shed light on its rise in the white evangelical world.

Something to Watch

Live Prayer: Outward Movement

Re-watch Daniel Susenbach's sermon from our Live Prayer launch series to be reminded of the prayer, "God make me bold, fill me with the Holy Spirit, Come and do the impossible."

How Early Christians Got Hospitality Right

Watch this brief clip from Jo Saxton on hospitality and the invitation for us to consider how to love those around us more intentionally.

Something to Read

What Another Year of Routine

Teaches Us about God

by Anne Kerhoulas

Anne grew up at Grace Commons. Read her thoughts about finding God in the monotonous tasks each day.

The Other Half of Church

by Michael Hendricks and Jim Wilder

Join Michael and Jim's journey as they couple brain science with the Bible to identify how to overcome spiritual stagnation by living a full-brained faith.

Something to Talk About

Can you help me think of some solutions to my biggest obstacle in prayer right now?

What are you studying in the Bible right now or what do you hope to study soon?
