Easy to use, quick to access Karuk culture, lots to learn.

Sípnuuk—more than just a storage basket!

Learn how to navigate the Karuk Tribe's online collection website, and ask any questions you may have about the possibilities of creating your own personal archives.

With the Sípnuuk Digital Library, Archives and Museum, the Karuk community has a unique opportunity for preservation, promotion and celebration of Karuk history, language, traditions, traditional knowledge, skills, art and living culture.

We would like to invite our Happy Camp, Orleans and Yreka Communities to one or all of these short, but informative workshops at the following locations:

Mar.16, Happy Camp Computer Center, 5-6:30 pm

Mar. 28, Orleans Computer Center, 5-6:30pm

Apr. 4, Yreka Learning Center, 5-6:30 pm

For more information, please contact Bari Talley,
Karuk Tribal Libraries Coordinator, btalley@karuk.us

Yoôlva to the Karuk Tribe and IMLS for their support!
