

Six Conversations

About Identity, Race And Culture

with Dr. Johnny Lake

Join us in this series of experiential learning opportunities designed to develop and support:

- » A fundamental process to help recognize, understand, engage and address cultural and racial dynamics
- » An expansion of perspectives and increase in knowledge and skills regarding cultural and racial issues
- » How service providers can better address and understand specific needs of those being served while dealing with diverse issues

Session 1: September 16, 2017

Introductions, Modes of Learning, and Learning Opportunities

Session 2: October 21, 2017

Defining Identity, Race, Culture, Ethnicity and Other Terms

Session 3: December 2, 2017

How Identity Works – Socio-Political and Socio-Historical Contexts

Session 4: February 10, 2018

Understanding Stereotypes, Prejudice, Discrimination, and Racism

Session 5: March 10, 2018

Learning about Advocacy, Equity, and Social Justice

Session 6: April 21, 2018

Building Community – Working Beyond Race and Identity Issues

Dr. Johnny Lake

is a scholar and presenter focused on teaching and learning around issues of leadership, diversity, race and culture, personal and organizational growth, cultural competency, and communication. Dr. Lake holds a bachelor's degree in history from Willamette University. He has a Masters and Ph.D. in Educational Leadership, Policy, Management and Organization. Dr. Lake is an Assistant Professor of Education at Northwest Christian University and leads teacher preparation, counselor and administrator classes. He is also an administrator on special assignment with the superintendent in the Eugene, OR 4J School District.

$100

9am - 1pm

OregonASK

9140 SW Pioneer Ct E
Wilsonville, OR 97070

Visit oregonASK.org
to register today!