California Democracy School

Civic Learning Training

Preparing Students for College, Career, and Civic Life

This face-to-face training will equip K-12 educators with tools and strategies to build civic knowledge, skills, and dispositions for all students to become informed, engaged citizens.

Learn the basics on how to frame civic inquiries, facilitate research and investigations, engage students in civil dialogue about controversial issues using the Structured Academic Controversy approach, and how to help students reach conclusions to take informed, responsible civic action on issues they care about.

Learn how to prepare YOUR students to earn the State Seal of Civic Engagement.
Learn how your school can become a California Democracy School!
