

"My Future...What Now?"

Teens Talk About Moving Forward in our Challenging Times

~ FEATURING A PANEL OF GIFTED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ~

Hosted Live Online by

Dr. Jim Delisle

Tuesday, April 28, 2020

2pm ET, 1pm CT, Noon MT, 11am PT

Dr. Jim Delisle

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Dr. Jim Delisle has worked with gifted individuals for over 40 years, as a teacher, professor, counselor and dad. Focusing his work on the social and emotional needs of gifted individuals, Jim has written 25 books on this unique population, including the best-selling "Gifted Teen Survival Guide" (co-authored with Judy Galbraith) and the award winning books, "Understanding Your Gifted Child From the Inside-Out" and "Doing Poorly on Purpose: Strategies to Reverse Underachievement and Respect Student Dignity".

A retired Distinguished Professor of Education at Kent State University, Jim is a frequent presenter in both national and international venues, and continues his passion for reaching kids by regularly working with highly gifted 9th graders at Scholars Academy in Conway, South Carolina.

My Future...What Now?

ABOUT THE EVENT

A conversation with juniors and seniors in high school who will discuss, among other things, the challenges they are facing in a world dealing with a viral pandemic. This live video stream will help adults understand the reality and issues students are facing as they eagerly look ahead to the future amidst much uncertainty. This will be educational, engaging, and inspiring. The students will also share a song from their playlist that best describes the moment in time in which we are living.

Tuesday, April 28, 2020

2pm ET, 1pm CT, Noon MT, 11am PT

Watch on youtube: <https://tinyurl.com/2020JDStudentPanel>

