PRESS RELEASE: 3 August 2017 CONTACT: Gail Mishkin gailm@flintridgebooks.com

La Cañada Flintridge, CA – On Saturday, September 9 at 6 PM, Flintridge Bookstore & Coffeehouse welcomes author Christopher Husberg for a reading, discussion, and signing of Dark Immolation, book two of The Chaos Queen Quintet, described by the Library Journal as “a great new fantasy epic.”

Husberg was at the bookstore last year for the release of Duskfall, book one in the series, which was shortlisted for the Morningstar Award for Best Fantasy Newcomer at the 2017 Gemmell Awards. The Library Journal declared this book “perfect for fans of Daniel Abraham and Brandon Sanderson.”

Publishers Weekly writes: “Following the dramatic events of Duskfall, Husberg settles in for granular world building...Dark Immolation has some of the action, horror, and revelations of the first volume, but this is a book of politics first: religion versus government, traditional female power versus traditional male power, and the wild cards that skew a chess match not designed for them.”

Christopher B. Husberg was born in Alaska. He received his undergraduate degree and his MFA from Brigham Young University, Utah, where he studied with Brandon Sanderson, author of the Mistborn series and the Stormlight Archive. His short story collection Look Me in the Stars received an honorable mention in the 2013 Utah Original Writing Competition.

Christopher currently lives with his wife and daughter in Lehi, Utah, where he spends his time writing, reading, writing, hiking, writing, playing video games, and hanging out with his family.

For more information, contact Gail Mishkin at (818) 790-0717.
