Raptors at the Library

Saturday, June 28, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

What do eagles, hawks, falcons, and owls have in common? They're all raptors! Join a naturalist from Westwood Hills Nature Center and a live ambassador bird for this interactive, hands-on presentation. Bring a blanket or chair – we will be outside for this program (weather permitting)!

Partner: Westwood Hills Nature Center.

Sponsor: MELSA (Metropolitan Library Services Agency)
