

Elaine Flud Rodriguez

Elaine Flud Rodriguez has served as General Counsel of Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport since August 2011. In this position, Elaine manages the Airport's in-house Legal Department which handles all legal matters at the Airport – everything from complex terminal construction contracts and bond issuances to providing legal advice regarding bomb sniffing dogs. Prior to joining the Airport, Elaine was General Counsel of two publicly-traded wireless communications companies, EF Johnson Technologies, Inc. and CellStar Corporation, and also previously served as General Counsel of Zoecon Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sandoz Ltd. Before going in-house, she was engaged in the private practice of law with Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld and Atlas & Hall. Elaine earned her BA from Loyola University New Orleans and her JD from Tulane University School of Law. She is licensed to practice law in the states of Texas and Louisiana. Elaine is a member of the Dallas and American Bar Associations, the Texas General Counsel Forum (Board Member and current Vice President, DFW Chapter), and the Steering Group of the ACI-NA (Airports Council International) Legal Affairs Committee (Chair, September 2021 – December 2023). She also serves as a member of the Steering Committee of the Creative School of Dallas and the Board of Trustees of Wesley Prep.
