

HUSCH BLACKWELL

Husch Blackwell is built around one idea: help our clients succeed. Our industry-centric approach gives us a deep understanding of what issues our clients face every day, and this knowledge informs the practical, real-world legal counsel we provide, as well as the innovative ways in which we deliver it.

Situated within a network of 18 U.S. offices with over 600 lawyers, our three Texas-based offices—Austin, Dallas and Houston—extend our firm’s ability to provide the scope and comprehensiveness of a full-service national law firm, but do so with skilled practitioners who understand that Texas is a world of its own.

Industry-specific expertise, local-market knowledge, extensive experience with Texas law and policymakers, and the resources of an Am Law 100 law firm...that’s why Husch Blackwell is the firm of choice for many of Texas’ leading companies.
