Investment Banking
Houston

Suhail is co-head of the Global Natural Resources Group in the Investment Banking Division (IBD). He is a member of the IBD Executive Committee. Suhail joined Goldman Sachs in 1998 as an associate in the Energy and Power Group in New York, where he focused on mergers, acquisitions and financings for the firm's energy clients. He also spent two years on the West Coast overseeing relationships with semiconductor clients for the firm's Technology, Media and Telecom Group. Suhail transferred to London in 2005 to cover European Energy clients and subsequently set up the firm's presence in the Middle East and North Africa and was head of Investment Banking for those regions. He was also co-head of the Financial Sponsors Group in EMEA before relocating to Houston in 2011 to become co-chief operating officer of the Global Natural Resources Group and head of the Houston office. Prior to assuming his current role in 2014, Suhail was co-head of Global Energy. He was named managing director in 2004 and partner in 2008.

Prior to joining the firm, Suhail worked at Schlumberger and at J.P. Morgan.

Suhail earned a BS in Engineering from Baylor University and an MBA with a concentration in Finance from Columbia University.
