Call to Continuing Conversion of Candidates

“You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people; Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvelous light.”

Diocese of St. Augustine

On September 8, 1565, a small band of Spaniards celebrated Mass on the shores of north Florida in preparation for starting a settlement there. They named their new home St. Augustine in honor of the saint on whose feast day they sighted land. Thus were the seeds of Christianity first sown in North America.

St. Augustine is the site of the first permanent parish church, now the Cathedral Basilica. This cathedral was built between the years 1793-1797. Twelve large stained glass windows depict events in the life of St. Augustine of Hippo. Another large window, to the right of the front door, honors St. Cecelia, patron of music. The fourteen oil paintings of the Stations of the Cross are copies of those in the Pauline Chapel of the Vatican.

Each cross-beam bears the coat of arms of a bishop of St. Augustine. The murals throughout the cathedral are by Hugo Ohlms, a local artist. On the wall behind the main altar are three statues covered in gold leaf. The central figure is that of Christ Triumphant; the two smaller statues are of St. Peter and of St. Augustine. The crossed keys and triple-crowned tiara carved in white marble over the front door mark the cathedral as a Minor Basilica, an honor conferred by Pope Paul VI on December 4, 1976.

The famed Santa Fe Trail originated here. It was from here that Franciscan Missionaries began the trek North and West to proclaim the Good News. It was here that the first schools and hospitals were opened. It was not until March 11, 1870, that Florida, east of the Apalachicola River, was designated as the Diocese of St. Augustine. The growth of the Church in Florida from this Mother Diocese to six additional dioceses and more than two million Catholics is a significant part of the story of the Catholic Church in the United States.

Today, the Diocese of St. Augustine embraces 17 counties spanning the northeast section of Florida from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean. It covers 11,032 square miles and serves more than 171,000 registered Catholics.

The Rite of Election for members of the RCIA is usually held annually at the Cathedral. This ritual would be held there because a cathedral is the central church of a diocese as well as the bishop's official church. The word cathedral comes from the Greek word cathedra, meaning chair. When a bishop is consecrated and then seated on the cathedra, his authority as chief educator of the diocese is established. This is an ancient ritual and the chair is an ancient symbol of teaching authority. Due to Covid – 19 and the need for safe distancing, we are at St. Joseph Parish this year.

Rite of Election

and

Call to Continuing Conversion of Candidates

The rite we celebrate today is the second major ritual of the OCIA. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) These catechumens and candidates have been elected (chosen) by God to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. The particular ritual we celebrate today is an adaptation that includes the already baptized as well as those preparing for baptism. The first part of this ritual was celebrated in the home parish of each of the catechumens and candidates. What you are participating in today is one of the three Rites of Election being held this Lent in the Diocese of St. Augustine.

During the season of Lent, these “elect” as they are now called, will begin the “Period of Purification and Enlightenment,” a time for intense, spiritual reflection that will extend to the Easter Vigil. These catechumens and candidates will purify their hearts and minds by celebrating several other minor rituals that will prepare them for the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil or in the case of many of the candidates, one of the Sundays of the Easter Season.

This process of initiation continues with the period of Mystagogia, which follows full initiation into the Catholic Church. The word mystagogia comes from a Greek word that signifies a deepening of the understanding of the mysteries of the faith. While this period lasts for a lifetime, most parishes provide the “neophytes” (newly planted) with a variety of opportunities during the Easter Season to experience life as a part of the Body of Christ whose mission it is to bring Christ to the world.

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Peter (3:18-22)

[Proclaimed in Spanish]

Beloved:

Christ suffered for sins once,
the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous,
that he might lead you to God.
Put to death in the flesh,
he was brought to life in the Spirit.
In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison,
who had once been disobedient
while God patiently waited in the days of Noah
during the building of the ark,
in which a few persons, eight in all,
were saved through water.
This prefigured baptism, which saves you now.
It is not a removal of dirt from the body
but an appeal to God for a clear conscience,
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
who has gone into heaven
and is at the right hand of God,
with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Deacon: The Lord be with you.

Refrain Cantor then All Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le -

Evangelio

Mc 1, 12-15

[Proclaimed in English]

Lectura del Santo Evangelio según san Marcos

En aquel tiempo, el Espíritu impulsó a Jesús a retirarse al desierto, donde permaneció cuarenta días y fue tentado por Satanás. Vivió allí entre animales salvajes, y los ángeles le servían.

Después de que arrestaron a Juan el Bautista, Jesús se fue a Galilea para predicar el Evangelio de Dios y decía: “Se ha cumplido el tiempo y el Reino de Dios ya está cerca. Arrepiéntanse y crean en el Evangelio”.

Palabra del Señor.

Response: Gloria a tí Señor Jesús.

Homily: Bishop Erik T. Pohmeier

Celebration of Election

Presentation of the Catechumens

On behalf of all responsible for the formation of catechumens, the Diocesan Director of Formation, Erin McGeever, affirms that the catechumens are ready to be called by the Church to the Easter Sacraments. Erin invites the catechumens together with their godparents to stand.

Affirmation of the Godparents and the Assembly

Addressing the assembly first:

Bishop: The holy Church of God now wishes to ascertain whether these catechumens are sufficiently prepared to be received into the order of the elect for the solemn paschal celebrations to come.

He, then addresses the godparents

Bishop: And so, first I ask you their godparents to testify. Have they faithfully listened to God's word proclaimed by the Church?

Godparents: They have/Sí, lo han hecho

Bishop: Have they begun to walk in God's presence, treasuring the word they have received?

Godparents: They have/Sí, lo han hecho

Bishop: Have they persevered in fraternal communion and in the prayers?

Godparents: They have/Sí, lo han hecho

Bishop: On behalf of the Church, I thank you for your testimony, and invite you to be seated, please.

Affirmation by the Assembly

Bishop: Now I ask you, the members of this community:

Are you willing to affirm the testimony expressed about these catechumens and include them in your prayer and affection as we move toward Easter?

Assembly: We are/ Sí, estamos de acuerdo

Invitation and Enrollment of Names

Bishop: And now, my dear catechumens, I address you. Your godparents and catechists and this entire community have testified favorably on our behalf. Trusting in their judgment, the Church calls you in the name of Christ to the Paschal Sacraments.

Now it falls to you who have long listened to the voice of Christ to respond in the presence of the Church by stating your intentions.

Is it your will to be initiated into Christ's Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist?

Catechumens: It is.

Bishop: Ahora les hablo ustedes, queridos catecúmenos.

Sus padrinos y catequistas y toda esta comunidad han dado buen testimonio de ustedes. La Iglesia, en nombre de Cristo acepta de testimonio de ellos y los llama a ustedes a los sacramentos pascuales.

Ahora, pues, les toca ustedes, que ya han escuchado desde tiempo la palabra de Cristo, dar su respuesta claramente a ese llamado en presencia de total la Iglesia.

Por lo tanto, ¿quieren ustedes iniciarse plenamente en la vida de la Iglesia. Por medio de los sacramentos del Bautismo, la Confirmación y la Eucaristía?

Catechumens: Si, Queremos

Bishop: Then let their names be offered for enrollment.

Please be seated.

Parishes and then names will be called in order of seating, beginning with those seated in the pews in the main body of the Cathedral followed by those seated on the Blessed Sacrament side, followed by those on the Blessed Virgin Mary side. Those in these two transepts should come to the back using the side aisles and process up the main aisle.

As the names of the catechumens are called, the pastors and OCIA coordinators lead them to the bishop.

The sponsor accompanies the catechumen and walks behind them.

The pastor or OCIA coordinator presents each catechumen to the bishop by announcing his/her name in a clear, audible voice.

YOU HAVE CALLED US

Bishop: Almighty, most beloved Father,

Graciously guide these elect of the Church and grant that, faithful to the calling they have received, they may be built up into the kingdom of your son and be sealed with the promised Holy Spirit.

Look also look upon these candidates, and grant that, faithful to the gifts already received in Baptism, they may be more fully conformed to the Death and Resurrection of Christ.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All: Amen.
