

Put the Legislative Session in Focus this January

The new year means the opening of a new Colorado General Assembly session. You are invited to attend the 2020 Legislative Preview and discussion on January 6. Join Senator John Cooke, Representative Mary Young and government relations representatives to review what our community should expect in the upcoming General Assembly session.

Structured as a panel, the event will cover a number of topics important to our Northern Colorado community.

This event is sponsored by the City of Greeley, Greeley Area Chamber of Commerce, Aims Community College, District 6, and the University of Northern Colorado.
