Subject: Greeley-Windsor-Fort Collins Regional Bus Route Starts in January

The Poudre Express, a dedicated commuter bus line connecting Greeley, Windsor, and Fort Collins will begin serving northern Colorado Jan. 2, 2020.

Monday through Friday, the Poudre Express will operate four runs in the morning and three in the afternoon and evening to accommodate varying work schedules. At launch, the commuter bus service will not run on weekends.

Transit officials based the commuter line's initial schedule and routes on extensive data and research from the past several years that indicated which times would serve the largest number of commuters.

For the entire month of January, the Poudre Express will be free to anyone who wants to ride and try out the new commuter service. After the free month ends, the regional route will cost $1.50 a trip. Monthly and annual passes will also be available. For more information visit greeleyevanstransit.com/fares-and-passes.

The Poudre Express will offer free Wi-Fi, allowing riders to relax, read, watch, listen, learn, or even work while they ride.

Starting in Greeley at the Greeley-Evans Transit Center and in Fort Collins at the Colorado State University Transit Center, the Poudre Express will provide a one-seat ride for the thousands of people who commute between Fort Collins, Windsor, and Greeley.
