

Exceeded Expectation!

To, all future customers of Norman Hubbard, Nationwide Appraisal Services.

I would like to share my experience thus far. Let me preface by saying we are all set in our way when it comes to using companies we've always relied on, myself included. Only when faced with having to use another do half of us even try. Well, that is exactly what happen in my case, I was faced with a beyond impossible time restraint on a file that had come in from another lender who could not execute. I reached out to Norman Hubbard Appraisal company and within seconds I had a response. Not only does this company have someone for every question & concern but knowledgeable compassionate and efficient. In most cases, we interact with just the staff on hand, and in this case, I was blown away by the professionalism, I was more than satisfied. Nope, they did not stop there, the President and CEO himself reached out to ensure all my requests were met and executed to my satisfaction. In my opinion, if you are looking for a vendor to go above and beyond and be wildly happy to do so this is the company, I would add to your vendor list.

Thank you and have the most amazing day!
