It was a fabulous week at St. Richard's! Starting with the Coalition for the Homeless Feeding Ministry on Friday night. Seven St. Richard's volunteers served more than 150 people dinner that night and because of you, we provided 20 hamburger casseroles for hungry people. Kristin Horan brought her son Griffin along to celebrate her birthday in service to others. You can see their photo below.

Saturday, Victoria Thomas, Janet Thrane and Janee Manley put up our tent, unfurled the St. Richard's banner and handed out write bands, brochures and water bottles at the Come Out with Pride Parade and Marketplace. Victoria brought back a list with more than 20 names and emails on it. I have personally reached out to each person on the list assuring them that at St. Richard's All are welcome, means "all" no exceptions. You can see a photo of that event below as well.

Then on Sunday, we greeted all of our furry friends at the Blessing of the Animals at 10:30 a.m. in the Breezeway. Thanks to Steve Erwin we also have fabulous photos of that event that you can see in the enews.

Sunday Night we greeted four of our families at our Family Friendly 5 pm Eucharist. It was a joy to see our children together for worship and for a little fellowship in the breezeway. There is a fabulous photo of our St. Richard's Children below as well.

Coming up next is our Trunk and Treat event on Sunday, October 24 from 5:30-6:30 p.m. We need you! Please let me know if you are willing to decorate your trunk, buy a big bag of candy and be present at St. Richard's in the Parking Lot where we expect to greet the over 100 children as they drive through with their parents and get a little All Hallows Eve love from St. Richard's!
