

2020: THE YEAR OF THE BLACK WOMAN THROUGH A HISTORICAL LENS

MARCH 25th at
THE BLACK ARCHIVES

Presented by:
The Department of History &
Political Science and
The Meek-Eaton Black Archives

THE INAUGURAL WOMEN'S HISTORY SYMPOSIUM AT FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY

10-11 am Lecture: Dr. Tiffany Packer, Assistant Professor of History
Sista Stewards: Black Women, Historic Preservation and the Memorialization of Black Bodies from Lynching to Police Brutality

11:15am-12:15pm Lecture: Dr. Nashid Madyun, Director of the Black Archives
Ye Shall Know them by their Fruits: Black Female Philanthropy and Entrepreneurship in the Rural 19th Century South

3-4pm Graduate Student Presentation: Ms. Kristen Gary, MASS Program
They That Wait: Staying Politics in Coahoma County, Mississippi

4:15-5:15pm Lecture: Dr. Ameenah Skakir, Director of the Candidate Empowerment Center
Birthing Liberation: Race, Rights & Reproduction

5:30 - 6:30pm Book Talk & Signing:
Dr. Kimberly Pellum, Assistant Professor of History
Black Beauties: African American Pageant Queens in the Segregated South