It's a very uncertain and challenging time...maybe a care package would help???

Clark County TeenTalk is currently sending a FREE care package to youth ages 12-18
who live in Clark County!

Each care package includes a journal, a fun pen, a stress squishie, a kit to make your own little cheerleader when times are tough, information about handling stress and anxiety, encouragement and an unhealthy snack!

If you would like to request a care package, simply send an email to kris.henriksen@clark.wa.gov

In your email, include the name(s) and mailing address of where the kit should be sent to!
