NATIONAL NUTRITION MONTH

Join the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics in celebrating National Nutrition Month.

This month-long nutrition education and information campaign was created in order to highlight the importance of making healthy food choices and developing sound eating and physical activity habits.

The theme for this year's campaign is "Go Further with Your Food" which focuses on healthy eating habits while also urging us to cut back on food waste.

Read more about how to get involved and over 30 ideas for National Nutrition Month[®] at your school, workplace, or your local grocery store. Include the entire family and add some fun to your learning experience with games like Nutrition Sudoku or Rate Your Plate.

FIT TIP: SANDBAG TRAINING FOR MUSCULAR STRENGTH

This Fit Tip focuses on using the sandbag as a great tool that can improve your muscular strength/endurance, stability, and power.

While sandbag training has been utilized by athletes for many years, it is becoming increasingly popular among all exercisers.

As a result, many fitness professionals are incorporating sandbag training into their functional fitness programs.

Try these three sandbag exercises that, when combined, target all major muscle groups.

NATIONAL SCHOOL BREAKFAST WEEK

Mark your calendars and gear up to help your school celebrate National School Breakfast Week (NSBW) starting Monday, March 5.

NSBW was first launched in 1989 to help raise awareness of the availability of the School Breakfast Program to all children.

Since then, this weeklong celebration has been used as an opportunity for schools to celebrate with special menus, spread awareness to parents, and increase participation in the National School Breakfast Program.

Click below to explore the NSBW 2018 Toolkit and learn more about how parents, students, teacher, and your local community can get involved.
