

Contact Information

Edward Conway
Federal Building, Room 543
380 Westminster Street
Providence, RI 02920
401-528-4664

Ed's Bio

Ed Conway is currently a Compliance Specialist in the Providence Area Office of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. Ed started his career with OSHA in 2000 as a Safety Engineer in the in the Braintree Area Office. Ed has held other positions with in Region I including Regional Compliance Assistance Specialist, Acting Assistant Regional Administrator, and a member of the Regional Emergency Response team. Ed has been involved in more than 300 field inspections and several fatality investigations.

Prior to coming to work for OSHA, Ed was the Project Manager for the Electrical Division of the Tyree Organization. Ed was also the Maintenance Supervisor of Crosby Valve in Wrentham Ma.

Ed is also currently an Adjunct Professor at the New England Institute of Technology, in Warwick RI. There he teaches such subjects as AC/DC theory, Electrical Code and wiring.

Ed received his Bachelors Degree from New England Institute of Technology in Architectural Engineering and additional degrees in Electronics and Mechanical systems design.

Ed also served an apprenticeship in the International Brother Hood of Electrical Workers, in Rhode Island (LU99). There he was employed as an apprentice electrician, electrician and foreman for 8 years. Ed also holds a Master Electricians license in RI, MA, CT, ME, VT, and NH as well as a Masters in Telecommunications in the State of RI.