MISSIONARIES

Rick and Ellen Burnette, Immokalee, FL (CBF Encourager Church Ministry Partnership)

- For CBF Disaster Response, we're thankful for a successful relocation of a shower trailer to our host church, Merryville United Methodist (near Lake Charles, LA), to accommodate future teams of volunteers responding to Hurricanes Laura and Delta.
- We give thanks for the many CBF churches and state organizations (including FBC Pendleton and CBF South Carolina) for donating materials and funds for cleanup bucket kits being distributed in the Florida Panhandle for Hurricane Sally flood recovery as well as Lake Charles, LA.
- For the farmworker ministry in Immokalee, Florida, we pray for workers returning to Southwest Florida for the winter harvest season and their increased risk of exposure to Covid-19.

Anna Anderson · Rocky Mount, North Carolina www.cbf.net/anderson

Anna Anderson serves alongside her husband, LaCount, in Northeastern North Carolina with Together for Hope, CBF's rural development coalition, focusing on providing poverty relief.

Anna and LaCount are involved with a community in eastern North Carolina called Conetoe. Conetoe is commonly called a "food desert." The Andersons work with the Rev. Richard Joyner and the Conetoe Family Life Center to improve the health of the youth and community by increasing access to healthy foods, increasing physical activity and providing access to health services. The goal is to break the cycle of poverty by improving the resources available to families and children.

Through volunteers, residents, churches and other area organizations, the Center is able to provide healthy foods, resources and education to empower the youth and community. This creates new economic opportunities by engaging the community, whose history is rooted in the land, restoring sustainable resources, building partnerships, collaboration and self-preservation.
