

ALVSCE Research Awards - Call for Nominations

Submission Deadline for all Award Nominations: March 1, 2023

Three research awards have replaced historical Researcher of the Year Award:

- The Research Achievement Award honors sustained achievement in research
- The Early Career Research Award honors achievement in research by a faculty member within eight years of initial appointment as an assistant professor
- The Outstanding Research Impact Award recognizes a defined research project or discovery of unusual impact and recognition

Please view the Guidelines, Criteria and Submission documents for more information about each award.

An email notifying us of your intent to nominate a colleague, is appreciated. This email should be sent to zaidaz@arizona.edu and include the name and unit for the individual to be nominated, and the name of the award that they will be nominated for.
