Governor Bryan Grants Administrative Leave on July 5 For Emancipation Day and Fourth of July Holidays

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS — Because the V.I. Emancipation Day falls on Saturday, July 3, and the Fourth of July holiday falls on a Sunday this year, Governor Albert Bryan Jr. has issued a proclamation granting administrative leave on Monday, July 5, for non-essential Government of the Virgin Island employees.

All government office will be closed on Monday, July 5.

The leave granted does not apply to essential employees and employees on a regular or rotating shift. Employees on annual or sick leave immediately preceding or immediately following the period administrative leave is granted will not receive administrative leave, and future leave will not be substituted for employees who are considered essential and/or whose shift happens to fall on a day in which other employees are granted administrative leave.

The Bryan-Roach Administration is committed to transparency, stabilizing the economy, restoring trust in the government and ensuring that recovery projects are completed as quickly as possible. Visit transparency.vi.gov
