AARP in The Virgin Islands Invites All to a Virtual Concert in Celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month

The Event Features Four-Time Grammy Nominated Artists and Workshops

Christiansted, US Virgin Islands - AARP in The Virgin Islands will celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with a Virtual Concert. AARP in The Virgin Islands and AARP in Puerto Rico will host the show in honor of Caregivers across the two territories and the US on Saturday, October 9, 2021, at 7 p.m. ET, 6:00 p.m. CT, 5:00 p.m. MT, and 4:00 p.m. PT, LIVE on the web. Caregiving resources will be available for all caregivers during the virtual event, which is bilingual.

The event includes workshops that feature the Afro-Rican sounds of four-time Grammy-nominated and Latin Grammy-nominated Plena Libre of Puerto Rico. Plena Libre will perform Bomba and Plena and spotlight the beginnings and history of the music genres and cultural dances with demonstrations by folkloric dancers.

All Virgin Islanders and attendees across the US are invited to attend this FREE event. Registration is required to watch and enjoy the show. Visit https://aarp.cvent.com/AARPVIUnitedByOurRootsHHM2021 to register. AARP membership is not required. Registrants must be 18 years old or older. Children are allowed to watch the show under the supervision of an older adult by way of the same link provided to the older adult or legal guardian.
