Governor Bryan Holding Town Hall at Hull Bay For North Side Residents on St. Thomas

Governor scheduling similar meetings in neighborhoods throughout the Territory to hear residents' concerns and answer questions

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS — Governor Albert Bryan Jr. has scheduled a Town Hall meeting from 5 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, February 8 at Hull Bay to hear the concerns of, and answer questions from, residents on the North Side of St. Thomas.

The Governor is also scheduling similar Town Halls in neighborhoods and areas throughout the Territory to listen to residents about issues and concerns specific to their neighborhoods.

In order to follow Department of Health COVID-19 protocols, the meeting at Hull Bay will be limited to 100 people to comply with social distancing requirements.

In addition to Governor Bryan, other Bryan-Roach Administration officials who will be participating include:

- Lt. Governor Tregenza A. Roach
- DPNR Commissioner Jean-Pierre Oriol
- Public Works Commissioner Derek Gabriel
- V.I. Police Commissioner Designee Ray Martinez
- St. Thomas-Water Island Administrator Avery Lewis

Planned topics for discussion include the status of North Side road projects; the Hull Bay boat ramp project; Fishery Advisory Council issues; North Side police presence' and property tax concerns. Residents also are invited to address any other concerns affecting the community.

The meeting will be videotaped and posted to the Government House Facebook page for residents who were unable to attend.

The Bryan-Roach Administration is investing in the Territory's people, infrastructure and future through transparency, stabilizing the economy, restoring trust in the government and ensuring that recovery projects are completed as quickly as possible. Visit transparency.vi.gov
