Vocational Rehabilitation Services is a governmental agency that assists and supports the career development, vocational training, and educational goals of people with disabilities.

Vocational Rehabilitation Services program is offering local Business Leaders an opportunity to make a positive impact on the employment outcome for People with Disabilities within the Territory.

Disability Inclusion training will dispel myths of hiring an individual with a disability, training an individual with a disability and the impact of disability on productivity.

In partnership with Disabilities Rights Center of the Virgin Islands, and Island Therapy Solutions.
