Governor Bryan Hosting Listening Session On Caneel Bay for St. John Residents

Community's Remarks Will Be Submitted to National Park Service Ahead of March 4 Comment Period Deadline

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS — Governor Albert Bryan Jr. will host a Listening Session for residents of the St. John community to express their viewpoints about the future development of the Caneel Bay property, and their comments will be transcribed and forwarded to the National Park Service (NPS).

The NPS, which has offered four scenarios for the resort's redevelopment after it was destroyed by the 2017 hurricanes, has an open comment period for the public that ends on March 4.

Governor Bryan's Listening Session will take place from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, February 27, at the Cleone Creque Legislative Annex Conference Room in Cruz Bay, St. John.

Watch Governor Bryan's video message about the Listening Session on the Government House YouTube page here.

Participants are limited to two minutes for their remarks, and all comments will be transcribed and forwarded to the NPS on behalf of the St. John community.

St. John residents are invited to participate in person or virtually by Zoom meeting at:

When: Feb 27, 2022, 3 p.m. La Paz
