NEW YORK PANCYPRIAN FREEDOMS WINS
THE NATIONAL MEN'S SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP
CAPPING THE USASA's 100th ANNIVERSARY TOURNAMENT
FOR THE FITZ MARTH CUP

Women's National Amateur Soccer Championship Is Today (7/28) AT 11 A.M.

(DeKalb, IL) Last night, New York Pancyprian Freedoms (Queens, NYC) beat Milwaukee Torrent (Milwaukee IL) by a score of 6-0 to win the National Amateur Cup Soccer Tournament. With their win, the New York Pancyprian Freedoms receive the title of National Amateur Cup Champion, the top distinction that an elite amateur soccer club can earn in the United States.

This national competition is held under the auspices of the USASA (United States Adult Soccer Association), the preeminent amateur soccer association in the United States with over 220,000 members. The National Amateur Cup is the oldest ongoing adult amateur soccer tournament in the United States. It is celebrating its 100th year of competition this year.

In addition to the Cup and title, the New York Pancyprian Freedoms will receive a berth in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup competition, which includes both amateur and professional teams, to be played later this year.

Later today, the women's finals match, between Pan World Elite WFC (Utah) and Winger FC (Charlotte, NC), will be played at 11 A.M. at the NIU Track &

Field & Soccer Complex at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Tickets to the women's finals, today, can be purchased at: <https://usadultsoccer.com/national-amateur-cup/>

ABOUT USASA

The United States Adult Soccer Association is the national association for adult amateur soccer in the United States. Established in 1982, USASA oversees a wide range of adult soccer programs, leagues, and competitions, providing opportunities for players of varying skill levels to engage in the sport. Through its fifty-four state associations, with over 220,000 players and national leagues, USASA promotes the growth and development of adult amateur soccer at both the recreational and competitive levels. USASA is a member of the United States Soccer Federation and plays a vital role in advancing adult soccer in the United States.
